

OBJECT TO AN EXTRA SESSION

GRAND JURY SEES NO NECESSITY FOR CONVENING LEGISLATURE.

The grand jury, District Attorney McCarran and Treasurer Gilbert have gone on record as opposing the calling of an extra session, and they sent a wire to Governor Sparks last night to that effect. Their attention was called to the matter by the receipt of a telegram yesterday from J. W. Briggs, assemblyman from Manhattan, which read as follows:

"Carson, Nov. 21, 1907.

"To the Foreman of the Grand Jury: "What is the feeling there regarding the calling of a special session of the legislature?"

"J. W. BRIGGS."

The grand jury and the officials of the county named got together, and went over the situation. The treasurer declared that the taxes were coming in as usual, and it was agreed that it would be an unnecessary expense on the county, and would put the officials in an awkward position. The following telegram was sent to Governor Sparks:

"To Hon. John Sparks, Governor of Nevada, Carson, Nevada:

"The grand jury of Nye county urgently requests that no extra session be called. Taxes coming in as well as usual. Southern Nevada not in need of legislative assistance. (Signed) "R. B. DAVIS, "Foreman Grand Jury."

PERSONAL MENTION

Royal Gordon and Warren Edgar were passengers for Millers on yesterday morning's train.

William Miner, formerly with Ryan and Stenson, went to Waller Springs yesterday morning.

Mrs. W. J. Bruce, left for San Francisco, having been called there on account of the illness of her mother.

Hon. W. P. O'Meara arrived in the city yesterday morning after an absence of several weeks, during which time he has been to Salt Lake and San Francisco.

Attorney George Green of the firm of Campbell, Metson and Brown, was a passenger on yesterday morning's train for Goldfield.

C. H. Higbee, secretary and treasurer of the Tonopah Mining company, was one of the arrivals on yesterday morning's train, coming here from Philadelphia.

Clifford and R. B. McClelland arrived here yesterday afternoon and proceeded to Goldfield later on. They were accompanied by the Humphrey brothers, Charles and Frank.

C. K. Lord, president of the Tonopah and Goldfield road, accompanied by C. R. Miller, one of the directors of the Tonopah Mining company, are going out on the southern route this morning.

S. C. Lowe, engineer of the local gas company, leaves for San Francisco this morning, having completed the business that brought him to Tonopah. Mr. Lowe has been here for nearly two months, during which time he has straightened out things in the office and the plant, and leaves everything running smoothly.

F. N. Jones, the eccentric sign painter, will leave us this morning for San Francisco, from where he will go east to visit his mother, whose health is not of the best. Mr. Jones will be back in Tonopah after the holidays, for he says that this is too good a country to stray away from long.

Miss Louise Fucher of Nevada City, California, is here as the guest of Miss Delphine St. Clair, whose bridesmaid she is to be at the wedding of the latter with Joseph Sutcliffe on Thanksgiving eve. The wedding will be solemnized in St. Mark's Episcopal church, the Rev. Mr. Mills of Goldfield officiating.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR CONGRESSMAN

SPACIOUS PARLORS OF BARTLETT MANSION THROWN OPEN TO FRIENDS.

Congressman George Bartlett was given a farewell party at his handsome residence on the hill last night, on the eve of his departure for the halls of congress. He goes to Washington in a few days and the reception was given him by Mrs. Bartlett, and it was certainly an occasion to be long remembered as one of the pleasantest functions yet given in the Bartlett mansion. The great room, or series of rooms on the lower floor were crowded, but there was plenty of room for the guests in the spacious halls.

It was an affair where the ladies were invited to attend in shirt waists and the men in their ordinary attire. Here is a copy of the clever invitation which was sent out on unbleached muslin:

"When you see this rag, don't turn up your nose

But dress yourself in your plainest clothes.

The dear, sweet girls as judges may come.

The boys have tasks to do for fun.

The brothers and others may come at eight

And everyone may stay quite late.

The best performed task will get a prize;

So try to win it if you are wise.

Bartlett House, November twenty-five."

After the guests were pretty well assembled each guest was requested to take a card from a grab bag, and the card stated the task which had been set for him. And then the fun began.

Key Pittman found that he had to construct a ballet costume, and Senator Oddie discovered that he had to don the costume and give the ballet dance. Bert Smith forgot the banking business for the nonce, and turned his attention to the dressing of a doll. R. P. Dunlap found himself converted into a seamstress, and was engaged in the delectable task of making buttonholes and sewing on buttons. Bert McIntosh had to deliver a temperance lecture—oh, dear, Hugh Brown had to build a warship, and John Kirchen had to sculpture a face of Lincoln out on a potato.

Charley Kirchen built a bird cage for Miss Stansbury, and Bert Tripp tried his hand at making flapjacks, while George Blakeslee poached an egg. Jim Force made a dress for one of the ladies, and Bert Gibbons had to make a unique proposal of marriage. Billy Pittman made a speech and Bert Gillespie made a pair of trousers. There was something to do for everybody, and the fun was great. The speeches and like stunts followed the dressmaking and other tasks, and then there was music and dancing. There were pretty talks to Congressman Bartlett, and a neat response in Mr. Bartlett's characteristic manner, and at the end everybody sang Auld Lang Syne, and voted the evening one of the most delightful that was ever spent in Tonopah. Mrs. Bartlett was a most charming hostess as everyone knows who has enjoyed her hospitality, and Mr. Bartlett was an ideal host. The invited guests were the following:

Messdames Arthur Raycraft, Hugh H. Brown, C. H. McIntosh, Key Pittman, W. B. Pittman, Perkins, Morris, Beardsley, George Blakeslee, B. L. Smith, H. Tripp, Gladness, Phillips, F. A. Keith, J. F. Hedden, R. J. Mapes, J. S. Jordan, F. Y. Williams, Stock, L. A. Gibbons, George Thatcher, W. A. Shockley, Oddie, Martin, Grissim, Richard, Geo. Richard, Uland, Sam Forman, Keeler, Jeffries, Jackson, R. T. Harris, McKim, Zeb Kendall, Wm. Grimes, C. Grimes, Cushman, Kirchen; Misses Stansbury, Crockett, Jackson, Sollenberger, Eastin, Mae Kind, Lillie Ahern, Bradford; Messrs. Raycraft, Brown, McIntosh, Key Pittman, Will Pittman, Vall Pittman, Frank Pittman, Perkins, Morris, Beardsley, Blakeslee, B. L. Smith, H. Tripp, Alonzo Tripp, Phillips, F. A. Keith, Sollenberger, Hedden, Mapes, Cheley, Jordan, Williams, Stock, Judge O'Brien, Grissim, Richard, Gibbons, Thatcher, Shockley, Senator Oddie, C. M. Oddie, Martin, Holmes, Geo. Richard, Uland, Perry, Benabe, Forman, Holmes, Monteath, Parkhurst, Macdonald, Dunlap, Force, Rives, Price, Gillespies, Clark, Conliak, Buel, Keeler, Crockett, Ray and C. Baker, Jeffries, Russell, Moore, Harris, McKim, Mullins, Jackson, Wheeler, Kendall, Grimes, Puddy Grimes, Cushman, Kirchen, Atkinson, Stenson, Manheim, Baldwin, Prouty.

PROMINENT MAN VISITS TONOPAH

C. H. HIGBEE LOOKING OVER HIS VAST HOLDINGS IN THIS DISTRICT.

C. H. Higbee, secretary and treasurer of the Tonopah Mining company, arrived here yesterday from Philadelphia, and spent the day in inspecting the company's property on the hill, and in conversation with President Lord of the Tonopah and Goldfield road, and C. R. Miller, one of the directors of the Tonopah Mining company. Mr. Higbee is an old timer of this camp, having come here in 1901, and one of his first inquiries was for Editor Booth of the Bonanza. Regarding the meeting of the company at Philadelphia, which it was reported lasted a week, ending in the retirement of President Brock and the election of Mr. Austin, Mr. Higbee said that the meeting lasted only twenty minutes, and that the business was quickly transacted.

"There will be no further changes in the management of either the mine or the railroad," said Mr. Higbee. "We are very well satisfied with the way things are going, and the mine was never in better condition. It is the purpose to have the railroad and the mine separated more distinctly, although they always were separated, only that they had the same president. Things will go on more smoothly perhaps, now that there are two heads instead of one."

Mr. Higbee will be in Tonopah several days, and will improve the opportunity of going over old familiar places. He was one of the pioneers in the Tonopah Mining company, for it was he and Anderson and Woodside who bought the property from Jim Butler. He is perhaps the heaviest stockholder in the railroad. He is a good mixer, and is the same Higbee in Philadelphia as he is in Tonopah. He is one of our kind, and he has the same thing to say of President Lord of the railroad. He predicts that Mr. Lord will make a hit.

WEST'S MINSTRELS ON DECK TONIGHT

GREAT AGGREGATION OF BLACK-FACED SHOW PEOPLE AT PAVILION.

Ye ho, and the merry minstrel men.

Tonight and tomorrow night, we will have the opportunity of gazing on the half circle of burnt cork artists, and of listening to old gags and new gags, the new songs of the day and old songs of the night.

West's minstrels, the greatest aggregation of black-faced comedians that is at present at large, are to be piled up on the stage at the Pavilion theater, and let off one at a time. Billy Van will be there.

Billy Van has a large mouth, and a larger fund of humor, encircled with real wit. The banks may close, and securities may shrink, but there is that difference between Billy Van's mouth and the banks, and there is no shrinkage in the fun he has been dispensing for the past many moons.

There are others; lots of others. The opening part of the show is entitled: "The Waiting of the Dawn." Isn't that appropriate at this time? We are all waiting for it, and let it be soon.

The clarion of fame, blown from afar sounds the praises of the merry men, and bouquets are handed Roswell J. Wright for his conspicuously sweet singing; Graham and McGreevy for their clever tripping of the light fantastic; Major White, the "Man in White," and his magic wand, and the "Battleship Four," which is a quartet said to be the best that ever blew over the sea.

Out of all this there had ought to be something worth seeing, and nobody is taking any chances by getting his seats early, and getting close up where none of the good things will be missed.

ARE INTERESTED IN LEMON MILL

PARTY OF ENTHUSIASTS ARE IN TOWN FROM MANHATTAN.

The last carload of tanks is here for the Lemon mill at Manhattan, and will be landed at the northern camp by tomorrow. This means that the mill will soon be completed in its entirety, and will be ready for operation shortly after the first.

A party composed of Cliff McClelland, his brother, R. B. Charles and Frank Humphrey, came in from Manhattan yesterday, and they are all enthusiastic over the outlook for the camp, and of its certain future. The McClellands are interested in the Lemon mill, and part of their business is to get the shipment of the tanks on its way to Manhattan.

"Any one who has not kept in touch with the situation at Manhattan," said Cliff McClelland, "will be surprised to learn all that is being done out there in the way of progress. There are new people coming in all the time, and inquiries regarding the properties are being received every day by the secretary of the Manhattan committee. On our way in we met four or five automobiles going out to the camp. These were filled with people who have interests there, or who are going out with a view of securing properties."

"When one stops to think, the development that is going on in the camp is simply astounding. There was another strike on the La Lime lease the other day, and these are getting so common that they are hardly reckoned with any more. The Lemon mill has in sight all that it can attend to in the way of ore for many months to come. There will be plenty of work for all the mills, if we only consider the stuff that is on the dumps."

"The Manhattan Consolidated has started up work again, and is sending its ore to the Wolf mill. We will be ready for work on the Lemon mill in two weeks, I think, at the latest. We will take the ore from the leasers first, for those men have waited long, and they are entitled to the first consideration for the reason that they are developing other people's property, and they are spending their money for that purpose. They need the money and they ought to have it. But it will not be long before everybody is getting some money for their returns, and everybody is feeling good over the situation. Considered from every standpoint the outlook is fine."

REPORTED STRIKE AT GOLD CIRCLE

Our correspondent at Gold Circle writes us that another rich strike of gold ore of sensationally high value has been made in the camp on Tuesday of last week by Story, Reeves and Hager.

The strike was made in the foothills about two miles south of Bamberger's big find. The ore is of a different character from that first found in the district, being gold, with which some of the rock is literally filled.

This makes a string of rich discoveries covering a distance of about five and a half miles. It is estimated that the rock found on the new strike will run about $10,000 per ton.—Battle Mountain Herald.

It is a well known fact that persons living in the Pine forests do not suffer from kidney diseases. One dose of Pineules at night usually relieves backache. 30 days' treatment $1.00. Your money refunded if not satisfied. Sold by Tonopah Drug Co.

THIRD OF THE ASSEMBLY DANCES

WILL OCCUR TONIGHT AT THE MINERS' EXCHANGE HALL.

"Oh, the days of the Kerry dances. Oh the ring of the piper's tune."

The third of the first series of the Assembly dances will be given tonight at the Miners' hall, and most beautiful maids and the merriest and bravest of men will riot in the maze of terpsichore. The Assembly dances have become the most popular functions of the season, and that of tonight is sure to be well attended by the members of the smart set. The music will be of the best, as it always is and the floor has been smoothed and polished for the occasion.

There will be a counter attraction in the way of the West's minstrels, but that has been very nicely arranged, the minstrels being here for two nights; so that one can take in the dance this evening and the minstrels tomorrow night.
